EASY WAY TO MAKE

Ladies May Add to Their Appearance with Little Trouble

Ladies who find trouble in properly or attractively arranging and dressing had been put in at the September, 1913, their hair should try using a little Parisian Sage twice daily for a while and W. Miles ordered a verdict for the denote the remarkable improvement. Parisian Sage, which can be obtained from the Red Cross Pharmacy or any drug counter, makes the hair soft, lustrous, fluffy and wavy, takes out the dull, lifeless appearance, dissolves the dandruff gence. A verdict of $3,300 was given the and stimulates the hair roots into healthy normal action. Instead of merely sprinkling the hair, it should be rubbed right into the scalp with the finger tips. Parisian Sage is a delightful treatment for both hair and scalp, cannot possibly injure the hair, and is very inexpensive.-Adv.

The committee which arranged for the municipal Christmas tree in Burlington a year ago will hold a meeting soon to discuss the possibility of having a similar tree this year in city hall park. The committee is composed of 25 men and women from various charitable and civie organizations in the city.

In one house in Rutland on the same day, Tuesday, there was a death, a birth and a marriage. Funeral services were held for Walter, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dupre, who was Glass. scalded to death Sunday; Mrs. Dupre Chis gave birth to a son, and within two cr. hours after the funeral a reception was in process in the tenement over the Dues, following the marriage of Dorothy L. Carnell and Charles J. Connell.

Ball Lyons captured a large three year-old-fox single-handed, near his home in Bennington recently, without injur-ing the animal. A second fox from the same hole was shot trying to escape. The pelt was an exceptionally good one. The live fox will be placed in a cage which Mr. Lyons maintains on his farm, where he already has two other animals caught last winter. He will endeavor to breed a litter of the animals.

Brig.-Gen. Rodney Smith of Brandon United States army, retired, died at his home in Brandon, in his 87th year. He was born in Vermont and fought in the Civil war in the army of the Potomac and in the department of the south. On Feb. 23, 1864, he was appointed a paymaster, with the rank of major, by President Lincoln. In 1881 General Smith was promoted to be deputy paymaster-general, with rank of lieutenant-colonel, and in 1886 was appointed assistant paymaster-general, with the rank of colonel. General Smith was retired by the age law in 1893 and received the brevet of brigadier-general, retired, by act of Con-
